

The 6th Global Leaders Workshop at Vet Med

January 16th, 2019

presentations 3:15-4:15 in the Lecture Hall

Offering solutions to real-world problems

Come listen to our new students' views on tackling global health issues!

Vote on your favorite proposals!

Introduction

This workshop, comprised chiefly of D1 students, continues the tradition of developing discussion and presentation skills within a global health context.

Schedule

1:00-3:00 Group discussion, Lecture Room 2 (closed to public)

3:15-4:15 Group Presentations Lecture Hall (open to public)

Scenarios: Each will be addressed by 2 different groups.

New South Wales
government

Infectious Disease: How will you control concomitant theileriosis and TB in cattle?

Translational Medicine: Which animal offers the best model for human cancer research?

AAALAC

More than 26,500 species are threatened with extinction

AMPHIBIANS 40% 	MAMMALS 25% 	CONIFERS 34%
BIRDS 14% 	SHARKS & RAYS 31% 	REEF CORALS 33%

IUCN
Red List

Environmental Science: How will you help to save a newly described endangered species?

contacts

English: Mike mike@vetmed.hokudai.ac.jp Japanese: Maki maki@vetmed.hokudai.ac.jp