

LP Forum (Student Forum) Report Oct. 24, 25, 2015

Name: SIMBOTWE Manyando

Your comments of student forum (Leading forum)

- Very informative and educative forum.
- Wide coverage of topics linking graduate school education, academia and the industry.
- Good interpretation – Japanese to English- of the key note lectures, so I was able to understand the main contents the forum.
- Good opportunity to for me to understand the purpose of the leading program in education and training.
- Good opportunity to share and learn from other students supported by other leading programs

What do you want for the future student forum?

- More time should be allocated for the group discussions as well as the panel discussion.
- Day 2 morning session: student tailored discussions should be included for the students not taking part in the preparation of the presentations.
- Slides must be in English to encourage more understanding and interaction.

Others

1. Hokkaido university tailored forums should be organized to help other leading students understand the purpose the program.
2. Our program should adopt certain activities presented at the forum from other LPs.
